

Expectations of NZARE Student Travel Grant Recipients

- Write a reflective report about how your attendance at the NZARE conference contributed to your research journey. The report will also share your experience with other postgraduate students with the intention of helping them with their research journey. This report will be published on the website, preferably submitted with a photo of you at the conference. For further information please see the guidelines below.
- Attend the Student Caucus meeting and the NZARE AGM at conference and introduce yourself into the NZARE postgraduate community.
- Share your experience at any Student Caucus workshop after the conference, contributing your experience to the postgraduate community.
- Introduce yourself as a 'student travel grant winner' to the NZARE Council members at the conference. The student representative can assist you with this or you can visit the stand and introduce yourself.

Reflective Report Guidelines

This reflective report should explicate how attendance at the NZARE conference contributed to your research journey.

This report will be published on the website, preferably submitted with a photo of you at the conference.

The word count for the report should be no more than 250 words.

The report might consider answering the following questions and guidelines:

- The name of your presentation at the conference.
- How did you manage the preparation of the abstract, oral presentation and question and answer session?
- What did you learn from that preparation process and is there anything you would do differently next time?
- What interesting presentations did you attend at the conference and why did you find it/them interesting/useful?
- Have you any other reflections on your conference experience that you'd like to share?
- Is there any other advice you'd give to other postgraduate conference attendees in the future?
