

INPUT special issue

Just a few reminders.... the survey, conference registration, awards 2013 (get your nominations in NOW), NZARE at international conferences, student forums, subscription renewals, NZJES special issue reprint, other conferences.

Membership survey

PLEASE take 3 minutes now to complete the membership survey. Only 16 out of 380 of you completed it in July, and we got most interesting results, but we really need a lot more of you to participate. Click now and it is done. Thanks so much - we want to make NZARE better to help you, so tell us what you need.

NZARE conference 2013

Theme: Creativity in Research: Generative inquiries for educational futures

Otago University, 26-28 November 2013. The team are looking forward to seeing you all there. More than 200 paper submissions have been received - a record! A large number of SIGs have organised meetings on the first day. It is looking like a fabulous programme. Enrol before 1 October to take advantage of early bird rates.

Awards 2013

Award deadline is 1 September 2013 for the following:

- McKenzie Award – outstanding achievement in the field of educational research
- Te Tohu Pae Tawhiti Award – significant contribution to Māori education research
- NZARE Group Awards – awards for groups of researchers
- Sutton-Smith Doctoral Award – excellent PhD thesis in education
- Rae Munro Award – excellent Master's thesis

Instructions on criteria for the awards, and how to apply, can be found by clicking the links above, or on the NZARE website. Please note that these awards are made by NZARE members for NZARE members.

NZARE sessions at international conferences 2014

Proposals for the NZARE symposia at AERA, BERA and CSSE close on 31 August 2013. All details can be found here.

NZARE student forums

Two very successful student seminars have been completed this year in Wellington and Auckland. A third will take at Massey University on 28 September, 10-1, at the Institute of Education, Palmerston North. The focus will be on 'publishing from your research'. This seminar is free to members and $20 for non-members (refundable if they subsequently join). Contact student.rep@nzare.org.nz for further information.

Reminder – subscriptions now due

You should have received a subscription renewal form in July. If you have not yet paid, a reminder will be sent at the end of August. Once you have renewed, we will be in touch to discuss a number of things you may wish to contribute to: SIGs, a mooted 'expert register', various professional and topical workshops, and the like. We have big plans for 2014, ending with what is going to be a fabulous conference in Brisbane in conjunction with the AARE.

NZJES reprint

The NZJES special issue on kaupapa Māori theory has sold out and is being reprinted. Copies will be available soon from NZJES@nzare.org.nz.

Other upcoming conferences and events

Children in crisis conference, University of Waikato, 7-9 October 2013.

Targeted particularly at teachers as well as researchers, this conference is putting together a stellar line-up of speakers. Details here.

Perspectives and Limits of Dialogism in Mikhail Bakhtin. 18-19 January 2014.
